

The Federal Government should not enact any law that weakens the effectiveness of Indiana's telephone privacy law. Our lives have been immeasurably better since moving to Indiana without the constant annoyance of unwelcome phone calls.